

Mum/ Dad/Carer be vigilant these are the red flags to be aware of

When to seek immediate medical attention?

Looks seriously unwell

Not himself; irritable or lethargic

Difficult to stay awake

Raised temperature 39 degree or more (in child 3 months old or above)

Raised temperature 38 degree or more (in child less than 3 months old)

Raised temperature for 5 days

Looks pale/ mottled or blue

Reduced fluid intake more than 50% of his usual

Reduced wee (for eg no wet nappies for 4-5 hours)

Sunken eyes/ skin doesn't spring back or takes time to return to the normal position when pinched

Breathing fast/ grunting/ retraction of chest wall while breathing/ stop breathing episodes (no breathing movements)

Rash on body, which doesn't disappear when pressing on it

Any abnormal jerky movements

Stiff neck

Unable to walk normally

Swelling anywhere

